

Media Advisory - Interview Opportunity With H&R Block: 2017 Canadian Federal Budget

H&R Block Tax Expert available to provide commentary and analysis of the Government of Canada's budget and what it means for Canadian tax filers

Calgary, AB (March 20, 2017) – Canadians from coast-to-coast-to-coast will learn this Wednesday how they will fare under the Federal government's new budget when it is released. H&R Block Canada will be on-hand in Ottawa to learn firsthand what's in store for the coming fiscal year, and will be available to discuss the impact of the Federal budget and how Canadians can plan to get what's theirs in the coming year.

Lisa Gittens, H&R Block Tax Expert, will be available to discuss the impact of this year's Federal budget including;

- Impact on middle-class Canadians
- What's in store for families with young children
- How retirees and the soon-to-be retired are affected by this budget
- How the budget impacts Millennials
- And more...
